

The PRHS student uses technology for a variety of academic purposes.

	1 No Attempt	2 Partially Meets	3 Meets	4 Exceeds
Investigate PRHS student uses technology to investigate solutions to problems.	No attempt.	Student uses technology resources to find information.	Student uses multiple technology resources appropriately to find information relevant to a variety of projects, to collect and process data, or to create models.	Student independently and thoroughly investigates solutions to problems through the use of technology.
Collaborate PRHS student collaborates while using technology.		Student needs assistance / redirection in order to collaborate successfully using technology.	Student collaborates to complete a variety of projects using technology.	Student demonstrates leadership, original thought, and the ability to foster excellence using technology.
Produce PRHS student uses technology to produce.		Student uses technology to produce an incomplete product that meets the majority of assessment requirements.	Student uses technology to produce a complete product that meets the majority of assessment requirements.	Student demonstrates an ability to manipulate technology in the production of unique creations or material.
Communicate PRHS student uses technology to communicate.		Student utilizes technology to communicate.	Student utilizes technology to analyze ideas and communicate information.	Student utilizes technology to enhance the audience understanding of subject matter.
Organize PRHS student uses technology to organize.		Student uses technology to assist with organization.	Student uses technology to organize thinking and document progress.	Student uses technology to organize thinking and document progress in accordance with professional guidelines.